

War Room Prayers for my Children
Day One

Father, I thank you for each of my children, _____, _____, _____, and my grandchildren, _____, _____, _____. I know Lord that you know my children better than me, and that your plans for them are far greater than what I could ask, or think.

Father, help me to fully release and exchange the plans that I have for my kids to you for your thoughts and plans for my children, and grandchildren. Help me to see your great plans for their lives Lord that I may help them obtain the blessed life you have for each of them.

I pray Lord God that you open the eyes of their understanding, (Ephesians 1:18) that they see you, that they may know what is the hope of your calling them, and what the riches of the glory of your inheritance is in your saints. Let them see what is the exceeding, greatness of your power to us who believe, according to the working of your mighty power. Let them see their need for you.

Lord, capture their hearts and minds and fill them with your precious Holy Spirit. Father, I pray that the voice of a stranger (the call of alcohol, drugs or anything else that would pull them away from you-John 10:5) they would not hear it, but only your voice Lord. Let them hear your voice of righteousness calling them. Father, give my kids and grandchildren ears to hear you.

I pray your word from 2 Timothy 2:22 that my children would flee from these youthful lusts that only drag them down and away from you. Lord, pull them up from the miry clay (Psalms 40:2) as you have done me. Set their feet upon a rock, Lord, as only you can.

“You have no idea how powerful it is when you pray and declare My Word”

(found on Pinterest)

Father, I plead the blood of Jesus around my family for a hedge of protection, from the top of their head to the soles of their feet that they may pant long and hard after you as the deer pants for your water (Psalms 42:1). Now, Father, I pray that you would raise them up Lord God to be more than conquerors in Christ Jesus (Romans 8:37), mighty men and women of valor, (Josh 1: 14). Amen.

War Room Prayers for my Children
Day Two

Father, in Jesus' name, I come again unto you to bring my children and grandbabies before your throne.

I thank you for your wonderful words Lord that you are giving me to pray over them. Father I include (name others) today. Again today Lord I thank you for each of my children, I'm grateful each one and my grandchildren Lord.

Father I pray that you would create in my children a clean heart and renew a right spirit within them (Psalms 51:10) that you might sanctify them and cleanse them with the washing of the water of your precious and holy word (Eph 5:26).

Father I know in your word (Jer 29:11) that you have specific plans for each one of these that I bring before you Lord, plans to prosper them, to give them hope and an expected end. Father, cause my children to call unto you (Jer 33:3) that you would answer them and show them great things that they do not know of yet.

I pray over my children and family Lord 1 Peter 2: 1 - 5 that they lay aside all malice, mischievous, and all guile, hypocrisies and envies and all evil speaking. That as newborn babes, that they desire the sincere milk of your word, that they may grow thereby, tasting of your goodness. That they be built up as a spiritual house, a holy priesthood offering up spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to you Lord.

“Your prayers are standing in the way of strange voices calling out to your kids and family”

Oh God I thank you for your promises in Jeremiah 31: 15 – 17 Lord that I can refrain my voice from weeping and my eyes from crying because my work shall be rewarded, and my children shall come again from the land of the enemy. I thank you Father God for giving me hope in our end that my children shall come again to their own border.