

Praying the 23rd Psalm

Father, I come to you in the name of Jesus.

I thank you Jesus that you are my (our or name your children and family) shepherd; I (we) shall not want.

Thank you that you make me (us) to lie down in green pastures, and that you lead me (us) beside the still waters.

And I thank you Lord that you restore my (our) soul(s) and lead me (us) in the paths of your righteousness for your name's sake.

Though I (we) walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I (we) will fear no evil for you are with me (us). Your rod (ordinances) and your staff (laws) comfort and protect me (us).

You prepare a table before me (us) in the presence of my (our) enemies and you anoint my (our) head with oil, my (our) cup runs over.

I thank you that surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me (us) all the days of my (our) life (lives). And I (we) will dwell in the house of my (our) Lord forever.

In Jesus' name I (we) pray, Amen.
