

Hey, Scout Ryo!

Can you tell my friends about Matthew 6:33? You know the one about seeking the kingdom.

Yes! Hairdo I can tell them about that scripture.

It is about two caves. These two caves represent two different meanings. Let's go see the caves

WOW! This looks scary. Where is it going?

I mean are we going to find anything?

Yes, Hairdo it is scary. No, it leads to nowhere.

Sometimes we enter into the wrong cave. If you don't see any blessings turn around and get out. Go to another cave entry. Never give up searching.

Hairdo, please never enter a cave alone. This was just to show what missing the kingdom of God is like.

That's a good idea. Friends always take a professional to a cave with you. Especially going down the wrong one.

OH, my word! LOOK at that treasure and those weapons. This is exciting. WHAT a crown. Seeking is worth it my friends. Seek the Kingdom of Jesus. Thanks, Scout Ryo.

Yes Hairdo, this is exciting. This is seeking the kingdom of heaven. See, the blessing are there. Tell your friends to read Psalms 25: 12-14 also. You're welcome and be blessed in your seeking of his kingdom.
